Companies Act 2016

Introduction

The Companies Act 2016 (CA2016) came into effect in January 2017 and has changed the business landscape in Malaysia significantly. Simplified processes, new corporate rescue mechanisms, enhanced corporate governance and extended directors' duties and responsibilities are some key changes affecting business operations. One year on, the facilitator of this workshop will review the post implementation of CA 2016 by highlighting the issues and challenges faced and share best practices gathered.
